thats supposed to be the right settings but its not working. The reason for that is that whenever you set your game with settings to high the game already spawns the triangles. A: I used the editor a lot before and i know it has its own limitations, but i can tell you that yes it will work. Why is it a bad idea to create your own vertex and index buffers? Imagine you change your mind halfway and decide to change something in your model : you have to redo the whole process! Even in the editor it's quite hard to do and it's quite hard to notice where you did wrong and when you have to restart your mod you might forget something. I'm sorry for your situation but i would stay away from it! When the news broke on Thursday that the FBI had arrested three alleged members of a highly organized and "extremist" Islamist organization the FBI describes as a "cell" based in Brooklyn, New York, the news was ignored by the Mainstream Media (MSM) for two reasons. First, the MSM couldn't be bothered, because the suspects, all young men in their twenties, were not from a Muslim country or an Islamic country. They were from Muslim countries. Secondly, the MSM couldn't be bothered because the suspects were non-violent. They were suspected of being part of an organization which raised funds for Al-Qaeda and al-Qaeda-linked organizations. What is clear is that the FBI, which has become increasingly aggressive and militant since 9/11, has set the bar high for the alleged Islamist organization arrested on Thursday. The FBI has publicly stated that the suspects were part of a "dangerous" and "extreme" Islamist organization with links to terrorism. It has even announced that it might charge the suspects with an "offense" as serious as a "terrorist act." The FBI has only named the suspects as being from the New York area, but they have stated that they were "under investigation for their alleged ties to international terrorism." There is no doubt that the FBI has made a preemptive strike against the suspects. By labeling them as "dangerous" and "extremist" the FBI has essentially labeled them as "terrorists" and removed any possible protection from them
