

by U Krotz â€” January 22, 1963 French President Charles de Gaulle, German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, French Prime Minister Georges Pompidou and foreign ministers. These meetings confirmed the desire of France and the FRG for a political settlement between East and West, they were an important step in the search for peace in Europe. During the discussion, which took place in Paris, the participants spoke in favor of negotiations between the US and the USSR on the conclusion of a treaty banning nuclear tests in three environments. And again, we were talking about the future of Germany.
